Rules on availing agri subsidies amended after flaws detected

HARIKISHAN SHARMA
New Delhi, August 23

ALMOST TWO MONTHS after an investigation by The Indian Express revealed a Union Minister and a serving Central government secretary's kin availing subsidy for their cucumber farms, the Centre has amended the 'Scheme Guidelines of Commercial Horticulture and Cold Storage Schemes' of the National Horticulture Board (NHB). It has revised the definition of 'family' – bringing within its ambit the subsidy applicant's spouse, father, mother, sons and daughters – and has made holders of constitutional posts, serving ministers, MPs, MLAs, mayors, district panchayat chiefs and government employees ineligible for financial assistance under NHB schemes.

The NHB, an autonomous body under the Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, amended the scheme guidelines on August 21.

“With a view to rationalise financial assistance, ensure equitable distribution of benefits, prevent duplication of subsidy, and make the implementation of the Schemes more transparent and effective, following amendments in the Scheme Guidelines shall be applicable with immediate effect,” read a circular issued by the NHB.

The scheme – Development of Commercial Horticulture through Production and Post-Harvest Management of Horticulture Crops – is aimed at promoting commercial farming (for profit) of horticultural crops on a large scale. The crops under the scheme are three types of vegetables – capsicum, cucumber and tomato; and eight varieties of flowers including rose, lily, and chrysanthemum. The scheme offered a maximum subsidy of 50 per cent, capped at Rs 1 crore per family, of the project cost.

Under the new guidelines, the government has made clear that five categories of people shall not be eligible for financial assistance under NHB Schemes. “Family members of persons falling in the above categories may, however, avail one-time assistance, subject to the applicable provisions of the revised definition of family,” the new guidelines said.

The revised definition of ‘family’ is as follows: “For the purpose of determining eligibility under NHB Schemes, the term ‘family’ shall comprise the applicant’s spouse, father, mother, sons and daughters.” As per the old guidelines, the term ‘family’ was defined as “the husband, wife, and dependent minor children.”

On June 27, The Indian Express reported that Bhagirath Choudhary, Minister of State in the Union Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers’ Welfare, availed Rs 99 lakh subsidy for his farm in 2025 under the NHB’s scheme ‘Development of Commercial Horticulture through Production and Post-Harvest Management of Horticulture Crops’. A month later, Choudhary returned the subsidy amount to the government.

The investigation by The Indian Express also showed that the wife, son and mother of senior IAS officer Naresh Pal Gangwar, who is currently serving as the Secretary, Department of Animal Husbandry and Dairying (DAHD), were among the beneficiaries of the scheme. The government had appointed Gangwar as the Higher Education Secretary on July 23, but even before his joining, his appointment was cancelled (on August 10).

Centre pushes states to speed up PNG adoption

THE PETROLEUM MINISTRY has asked states and Union Territories to provide district-level administrative support to accelerate the shift of households from LPG to PNG, seeking appointment of nodal officers to coordinate with gas distributors and OMCs. In an August 21 letter to state chief secretaries, Petroleum Secretary Neeraj Mittal said PNG, as a safer, cleaner and more efficient cooking fuel, has an important role in advancing India’s energy transition while reducing the logistics burden associated with LPG distribution.

“PNG brings a more efficient cooking fuel, playing a critical role in advancing the country’s energy transition objectives. Its accelerated adoption contributes to reducing the logistics burden associated with LPG distribution and improving utilisation of CGD infrastructure created via substantial public and private investment,” Mittal said in the letter. —PTI
